MEDIA ADVISORY

U.S. Azerbaijan Education Center Grand Opening and Educational Fair June 10, 2011

On Saturday, June 11th the US-Azerbaijan Education Center will celebrate its grand opening with a “Study America” university fair. The fair will be from 1500-1700, and is open to anyone interested in studying in the United States. American and Azerbaijani alumni of U.S. universities will share information about more than 50 campuses, including Stanford, Florida State University, University of Missouri, Johns Hopkins University, Boston University, and many others.

The US-Azerbaijan Educational Center is a brand new facility that combines American Councils, IREX, the Baku Educational Information Center, and the U.S.-Educated Azerbaijani Alumni Association (AAA) into an all-in-one center where students can come for free advice and information about studying in the United States and the range of exchange program opportunities.

Speaking about the center, U.S. Ambassador Matthew Bryza said “this is something totally new in Azerbaijan. Whether they want to apply independently to a U.S. university, find out about Embassy exchange programs, or just meet students who have already studied in America, the U.S.-Azerbaijan Education Center offers a one-stop-shop for anyone interested getting an education in the United States.”

The center is located on Caspian Business Center, 40 J. Jabbarli kuc. The center is open Monday through Friday from 09:30 - 21:00 and Saturday from 10:00 – 18:00.
